I Am NOT Going to Get up Today!

"You can try with dogs and roosters.
You can try with goats and geese. But I'm going to go on snoozing. You can bring in the police."

A warm bed and a soft pillow is all it takes to convince the slumbering hero of this story that he is not going to get up today. Funny verse and lively illustrations make every child's dream of sleeping away the day come true in this appealing, easy-to-read fantasy.

The simplicity of the text, illustrations, and concepts makes this a perfect book for very beginning readers.

Children will want to read it again and again—and they really can, all by themselves.

The Beginner Book Story

"Ten years ago, Dr. Seuss took 220 words, rhymed them, and turned out THE CAT IN THE HAT, a little volume of absurdity that worked like a karate chop on the weary little world of Dick, Jane and Spot."

—Ellen Goodman, THE DETROIT FREE PRESS, Nov. 1966

From this magically right beginning came the concept of Beginner Books, exacting blends of words and pictures that encourage children to read — all by themselves. Hailed by elementary educators and remedial reading specialists, these enormously popular books are now used in schools and libraries throughout the English-speaking world.
